Web Product Data

The Jackalope casual concept recliner is Nick Scali's exclusive feather-filled seat, powered motion sofa, with a "never-before" sink-in comfort offered on a motion sofa collection.

With lavishly deep and extra-wide seats, the recliner is upholstered in our new 'Urban' semi-aniline leather, with a subtle colour palette, perfect for someone looking for that natural look.

The recliner mechanism generously flattens out more than a normal operating recliner, and there is a mix of feather and fibre fill in both seat, back rest, and even surrounding the arms to give a very sumptuous feel, exacerbated by its chunky, cylinder timber legs.

As well as this, the Jackalope is a space saving recliner design which means that you need minimal space between the back of the recliner and the wall as the recliner folds into itself.
